POLICE REPORT SHOWS NOVEMBER RECORD NOT BIG

Gambling in Honolulu during November brought the city and county government nearly a thousand dollars, $355 to be exact, in fines and bail forfeitures, according to the police report for last month, which will be submitted to the board of supervisors' meeting tonight. The total number of arrests on this island for the month were 403 and penalties brought the city $2827.50.

In glancing over the comparative reports of the same month for the last 10 years it is found that there were more arrests last year for the same period and that the total of fines and forfeitures was $5015.30, over twice that of last month. Deputy Asch explains this by showing the great activity in gambling this time last year. Fines for various gambling games amounted to over $1500 in November, 1915, and approximately the same for chefa. Convictions in that 30-day period for opium traffic were nearly $500.

There were 55 arrests for assault last month, 38 for drunkenness and 20 for vagrancy, or a total of 123 directly attributable to booze.

In nationalities the Japanese led with 92 convictions, 75 of which were for gambling. The Hawaiians came next with 53; 24 for gambling. The Chinese are third in the list with 30 convictions. There were 13 arrests made for chefa last month and $292.30 realized from fines and forfeitures.

The Christmas number of the Paradise of the Pacific magazine made its appearance today, rich in color-plates, a large number of fine half-tones, and containing in its hundred pages a great deal of literary, descriptive, informative, historical and topical material of a praiseworthy nature.

Among the contributors may be noted Meteorologist Hamrick, Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, W. D. Westervelt, Mrs. Mary S. Whitney, Vaughan MacCaughy, H. Gooding Field, Will Sabin, Professor Rock, W. O. Smith, L. de Vis-Norton, Sanford B. Dole, Mary Dillingham Frear, Daniel Logan, W. R. Farrington, J. M. McChesney, R. S. Kelly, Capt. G. R. Clark, U. S. N.; Albert P. Taylor, C. S. Dole, J. M. Lydgate, Joseph Dutton and Rowland Dodge.

The 75 illustrations embrace a wide range of interest and beauty appropriate to the islands.

AD CLUB MEMBERS TO HEAR TALKS ON "HOW TO PLEASE SHOPPER"

Advertising for Christmas will be explained at the meeting of the Ad Club on Wednesday at the Alexander Young hotel. During the luncheon talks will be given on "How the Retailer Should Appeal to the Shopper." L. Van Anderson of the Pioneer Advertising Company and H. G. Jewell of the Star-Bulletin will explain to the members the power of appeal to the buyer.

Special music will be furnished for the occasion, and it is expected that Edsel Ford, son of Henry Ford of Detroit, will be present and make a few remarks on the automobile situation.

YOSEMITE "STENTOR" TO HOLD "MOVIE" AT Y. M. C. A. TONIGHT

The Y. M. C. A. will have a "movie" show tonight in Cooke hall, when David A. Curry, the "stentor" of Yosemite valley, will show six reels of motion pictures and give his lecture on the wonders of his camp in the mountains. Curry is one of the most interesting men of the West, having built up a camp where more than 10,000 people visit each summer, mainly on his own personality. He has a pair of lungs that have received press comment all over the West and gives his calls in the mountains which can be heard for 12 miles, it is claimed.
